The Traveling Christian Project is an interactive blog at TravelingChristian.com with the purpose of connecting Christian to his friends and family, near and far, old and new. Please cut out this Traveling Christian, color him if you like, and take him with you to interesting places. Take pictures of you with your Traveling Christian, then email with a brief explanation of your adventure (or funny moment) to post@TravelingChristian.com. Thank you and happy travels!
